January 16 - 20, 2023 Weekly Update

Good Afternoon

I'd like to open this week by thanking everyone for your patience and cooperation with the emergency school closure. The quick action by parents and guardians in having your child(ren) retrieved from school was greatly appreciated in this unexpected event.

Also, please accept our apologies, for not getting parents and guardians the Zoom link to the PAC meeting earlier this week. We had a communication breakdown here in our office and the reminder message with link did not get sent out to you. We will work to make sure that does not happen again.

Last night the Junior Girls and Junior Boys basketball teams traveled to SKSS. The girls won their game in convincing manner 45-22. The boys played a great game but came up a bit short in a loss. Today the Grade 8 boys head to Brock for a 2 day tournament and the Junior boys are back in action as they head to Ashcroft for a tournament. Go Cougars!

Next week we have a number of events including the Graduation Capstone presentations on Tuesday January 17th and the Senior Girls' Cougar Classic which happens Friday January 20th and Saturday January 21st. The Cougars kick off action here at 1:30pm on Friday. Finally, please consider supporting one of our amazing Cougar students, Harmony Trommehauser at her Independent Art Show on Wednesday January 18th at the Blue Moon Galeria and Café. Details of the show are available below.

Art Exhibition and Sale

An exciting exhibition of handmade canvas and paintings, using music and self exploration to express intent. In her first ever art show, local grade 11 student, Harmony Tommehauser, wishes to show you the world through her eyes. Open 3:30-5:30 pm. Blue Moon Galeria and Cafe
